

2018 NOMINATION FORM

HISTORIC FORT WORTH'S MOST ENDANGERED PLACES

HFW's List of Most Endangered Places is a marketing and educational tool that spotlights historic resources threatened by a variety of circumstances including deterioration, neglect, vandalism, encroaching, loss of parking, development, and/or lack of financial resources. A wide range of sites will be considered for the 2018 list including commercial, residential, religious, public buildings, neighborhoods, bridges, monuments and landscapes. Owners of properties recognized as Most Endangered benefit from increased public awareness and assistance from Historic Fort Worth, Inc. As a part of National Preservation Month, the announcement is made at a media event on Tuesday, May 1, 2018, at noon, at Thistle Hill, 1509 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Nomination forms must be received by noon on Friday, March 2, 2018.
